BONITA'S BUNCH.
It should be called "Bonita's Bunch," for it is a burlesque company and rather a clever one in certain particulars. But the name it sails under is not an attractive one for drawing an audience; the people were afraid there would be a scorpion somewhere.
Nevertheless, rather a good sized audience saw the El Paso performance and most of the people have something good to say for the show today. As a burlesque, some of the work was very clever and some was coarse, but it was denatured and toned down to such an extent that there was nothing vulgar about it, as might have been expected from a burlesque show.
As for a chorus, the company is the best that has been here this season. Marie Cahill's girls not excepted. They were not the best looking girls in the world, but their voices were unusually strong. With the entire company singing, the house was filled with a volume of melody.
Bonita's press agent told in advance about her beautiful gowns, fine figure and pretty face; he did not say much about her. She therefore came up to all expectations, and more—for she could sing some. In coon songs, she was at her best, but in her song in the second act "Rings on My Fingers" she made a decided hit.
Bonita is really very pretty; she wears some beautiful gowns and she has a figure that would attract attention anywhere. She is not a Marie Cahill as an actress, nor an Ellen Beach Yaw as a singer, but El Paso has heard wingers a lot worse and actresses still worse, and has no serious fault to find with Bonita. By eliminating a few of the inane acts and changing the name of the show so people could tell what really to expect, Bonita ought to draw good audiences. "Wine, Woman and Song" does not indicate that the show is as good as it really is, and people are afraid of it.
The show would be much better if the travesty that opens the second act was left off the bill completely; it is harmless, but tiresome, and acted by people only partly capable.

In the first act, the character impersonations were very well done. David LeWitt Jones impersonating David Warfield as the "Music Master" showed a glint of genius in his work. George Cohen, Robert Mantell, Jan Kubelik, Maud Adams, Blanche Bates and others were also impersonating. Lillian Bender as Jan Kubelik rendered some very sweet violin selections.
In the third act, the song and dance by Jones in the character of the Hebrew, was exceptionally good, with chorus accompaniment. The rope climbing by the girls was also good; it was a novelty well done.
Lew Hearn, first as the town constable, later as an Irishman and still later as a Dutchman of the stage variety, was amusing, and had a peculiar voice that pleased and entertained.
TEMPEST AND SUNSHINE. described as a beautiful play with a southern atmosphere of "before the war," to be seen at the El Paso theater on Saturday and Sunday, February 26 and 27, is a dramatization of Mary J. Holmes' popular novel of that name by Lem B. Parker and it is unnecessary to go into details other than to add that it is a complete production in every particular and the majority are familiar with Mary J. Holmes' style.
The cast is headed by Marie Debeau and Bess Dunlop, who have been seen separately in many well known productions, but it remained for W. F. Mann to secure them both for the same attraction.
Patrons are promised an unusually pleasant evening's entertainment by these two clever actresses and company. The prices are: Night, 25c, 50c and 75c; matinees, 25c and 50c.

SPECIAL MATINEES.
"Tempest and Sunshine" will give two special matinees—Saturday and Sunday—making a special price of 25 and 50 cents admission.

CHANGE OF PLAY AT CRAWFORD.
Starting Sunday matinee manager Rich will inaugurate a spring season of drama and vaudeville, producing a line of old time dramas and two high class vaudeville acts. Prices 10c, 20c and 50c.

The bill Sunday will be the old time favorite "East Lynne," with the "vaudeville" in a novelty acrobatic act and Miss Fay Bainter, the clever soubrette in a vaudeville sketch. The prices are 10c, 20c and 30c.

"HUMAN HEARTS" MATINEE.
There will be a special matinee Saturday of one of the best bills of the season at the Crawford—Hal Reid's beautiful play "Human Hearts." The matinee is at 2:30 and the prices are 10c and 25c.

AT THE EMPIRE.
An extra fine bill for tonight is offered at the Empire. There will be shown a very realistic Biblical picture, taken from the life of Moses. This is a very beautiful picture and will please the most discerning taste, the management says. "The Gambler's Doom," an exciting drama, and "Bag racing at Luna Park," a very funny comedy, will be shown. The Victoria will play "All Hall Thine" featuring Pure and Lively, a selection from Faust, by Caruso.

MME. TERESA CARRERO.
The world renowned pianist, Mme. Carrero, says that the Everett piano proved so satisfactory on her 1907 American tour, that she selected it again in preference to any other piano to accompany her on her present tour. She uses the Everett exclusively.

We invite you to examine our stock of Everett pianos, after which, you will be satisfied with nothing but an Everett.

DICK ARMENDARIZ IS UNDER ARREST

El Pasoan Held at Ft. Worth on Charge of Smuggling Opium.

Fort Worth, Tex., Feb. 25.—Dick Armendariz, alias Dick Moore, alias Mexican Dick, of El Paso, and Jake Goldstein were arrested here today by federal authorities on the charge of smuggling opium in large quantities from Mexico.

Opium brings $6 a bale in Mexico, but retails here at $30 the bale.

Dick Moore was the name Armendariz gave to the authorities here, but they have information that his correct name is Armendariz and that he has a brother, Gustavo Armendariz, night jailer at the El Paso police station.

Goldstein, it is believed by authorities here, is one known as "Shneur Sam," who is reported to have been at Los Angeles and to have been joined there by Armendariz.
